

Petition For Stay Of Deportation for Onsy and Fadia Zachary URGENT ACTION REQUIRED We, the undersigned urge you to stay the deportation of Onsy and Fadia Zachary. They are an elderly couple who escaped from Egypt in the early 1970's. Onsy and Fadia are Christian Coptic Orthodox and Onsy was in the Egyptian army where he was imprisoned and tortured when he refused to convert his faith to Islam. In February 1998, Onsy and Fadia came to live and work here in the US after being granted a work Visa (H-1B) only to discover that they were given incorrect legal advice by the US immigration attorney that filed the H-1 B petition for them. This prevented them from being able to acquire and utilize the rights they were given under that Visa. Throughout the years, Onsy and Fadia tried every effort to achieve legal status in the US but have been unsuccessful. Through a convoluted and tragic series of events and ruthless actions taken by Onsy's brother who lives in the US, after a falling out between the two brothers, Onsy was charged with a crime he did not commit. Onsy waited for over three years for his trial to clear his name and allow him to pursue other options that would allow him to stay in the US legally. Onsy's criminal trial finally took place. The prosecution had no evidence to present; Onsy's trial was mostly about his immigration status and how he was an Egyptian illegal alien. Onsy was convicted for the crime that he did not commit. Onsy's trial took place shortly after 9-11. Onsy, who is confined to a wheel chair, has been incarcerated for the past five years. Onsy is an innocent man and has been a victim of a great miscarriage of justice. Onsy will finish his sentence in September 2007 and if nothing is done, will be deported back to Egypt where he and his wife will be tortured. In addition to fleeing from the army and escaping the country, Onsy and his wife filed asylum here in the US claiming religious persecution. That alone makes them an "Enemy of the Government" of Egypt. Egypt, according to the US State Department, Amnesty International, Human Rights Watch and other reliable sources, routinely uses torture. For the past several years, Onsy's family have been trying to get Onsy's criminal case to an attorney who can right the injustice done to Onsy and overturn the conviction allowing him to pursue his immigration options. Onsy's case was recently reviewed and taken by one of top criminal defense attorneys. The attorney feels that Onsy has a rather substantial case and a good chance to overturn the conviction and exonerate Onsy. Onsy's case was also recently sponsored by the National Center for Reason and Justice. They are a national non-profit group who sponsor only a very small number of cases for the wrongfully convicted only when they believe that the person convicted is truly innocent. Onsy's criminal case is fervently being worked on and time is all that is required to overturn his conviction and clear his name. This will never give him or his wife back any of the time they lost or the suffering they have endured, but it will open the doors for them through immigration to keep them in the US safe from torture in Egypt. Onsy and Fadia have already suffered grievous injustice. They are terrified of being sent back to Egypt. This elderly couple are good people, devout Christians who just want to live out the rest of their lives together in peace and safety here in the US. Because of their immigration status, this exceptionally loving couple have not been able to see each other for the past five years. They have their own apartment and both were members of the church (Fadia is still currently), they have many friends who love and support them, and believe in Onsy's innocence. We, the undersigned ask that Onsy and Fadia's deportation order be stayed and allow Onsy to be free during that time. This will allow for time for Onsy's attorney to overturn the unjust conviction and allow Onsy the opportunity to be vindicated. This will also allow Onsy and his wife to pursue options to legally stay in the US where they can hopefully rebuild a life, establish a business as they had previously, and fully become part of the community that has already embraced them.

18	Beatrice R. Sa'	brsa@tmlp.com	I believe this couple should be allowed to remain in the US. They have lost so many of their final years together. We in the US allow freedom of religiion where so many other countries still do not. I also do not believe Onsey committed a sex crime against his niece. I do believe Onsy's brother benefited financially by having his brother sent to jail. Justice is not served by injustice.

63	ekladious E.I	ekladious@yahoo.co.uk	pls. stop the deportation of Onsy and Fadia, as they may face a hard life overthere.

			I have met Fadia on several occasions and visited Onsey along with Fr Vincent Nagle while he was in prison . Based on my conversations with Fr Vincent and meeting Onsey, I believe him to be innocent. I can only hope and pray that Onsey and Fadia be allowed to stay here so that his attorney can overturn this unjust conviction which then would allow them the opportunity to rebuild their lives.

71	Eugene C. Austin	eugene.austin@yahoo.com	The attempt to deport christians (or any non-muslim) who have sought refuge in this country, back to any muslim dominated state is disgusting and shows a complete lack of knowlege and understanding of the treatment handed out to non-muslims by muslim dominated governments and their muslim citizens over the past 1500 years. To ignore history and the relegation of non-muslims to second class citizens (a best case senario) is reprehensible. I call upon the US government to do the right thing, drop the deportation proceedings and grant political asylum to these people.

123	kari converse	kariconverse@earthlink.net	As an attorney with over 20 years experience representing foreign nationals in criminal cases, I know all too well how poorly these individuals are often represented. They are at a huge disadvantage, through unfamiliarity with what a proper defense is supposed to look like, or even what their rights are or what a trial is. It appears that Mr. Onsy was a victim of both post 9-11 animosity and ineffective assistance of counsel, and he deserves the chance to clear his name and avoid the horrific consequences that would befall a Coptic Christian removed to Egypt.

I am sure it took a lot of time and energy to "make it happen." Thank you for giving us the venue to share about this great man.As I pen this letter, I find it very easy to describe the man that has touched my life in so many ways. But if I did need to find the words, I can easily turn to the dictionary. And, there it is – words like: loyal, trustworthy, loving, leader, teacher, friend, father, husband, and God fearing. By simply adding words like: very, great, and amazing in front of these words, it will be easy to describe the Onsy that I know. For he is a man of honor, character and high morals. Unfortunately, the same dictionary can also describe the plight, and the life that he has been forced to live. Words like: long-suffering, injustice, set-up, and framed. These words are not nice, they are not pretty. Then again, his situation is downright ugly, for there are no words in the English language to 175	olivia roma	xolivicarlax@aol.com	i love fadia. She is the nicest woman i have ever met. i have known her for 5 years and i think she deserves to stay here. she is always there for me and gives me such good advice. everytime i see her she tells me how much she loves me and my boyfriend and how happy she is to be there for me. the first couple of words she says whenever i see her is me amor (my love) i would love for my name to be mentioned. if she ever left me i dont know what i would do. she is the best influence ive ever had.

178	Patrick Dunn	parodunn@uchicago.edu	Even if this man is guilty of the crime for which he has been charged, there are many courses of action that would be better than sending him to be tortured abroad.

			I have known Fadia for over four years and I have been very impressed by the strength of her faith and trust in God. With all the pain and suffering she has experienced thru this ordeal she has always remained confident that God will take care of her and Onsy. She has told me every week that I see her that she trusts God for everything and that she knows she is loved by Him. And I have seen that this is so. She is the object of much care and love by so many people that I have lost count. And I am one of them. I have visited Onsy in prison a few times with Fr. Vincent and Fr. Michael and was very struck by how free he was and like Fadia, how much he relied on God for his strength and peace. I know it wasn't always like that but I also know that he came to be able to offer his suffering of being imprisoned by the false accusations of his brother and the lack of good counsel up to the Lord for the salvation of his own brother who did this to him. I think if the inmates he's ever been imprisoned with and the guards who have guarded him would be interviewed they

215	Susan Gillis (organizer of this campaign on behalf of my uncle Onsy and my aunt Fadia)	saveonsy@aol.com	My name is Susan Gillis and I am the organizer of this campaign on behalf of my uncle Onsy and my aunt Fadia. I had truly wanted to be the first signature on this petition (or at least make the first page), but thankfully, there are so many people who support this cause that before I had the opportunity to write my comment, there are now over three pages worth of signatures and comments. I would like to take the opportunity to thank everyone who has given of their time to support Onsy and Fadia. Having complete and intimate knowledge of the entire situation and having lived through it myself, I am so grateful to God first and foremost that finally there are others that see and feel the tremendous injustice that Onsy and Fadia have lived through for almost 10 years now and that I have been trying to bring out to light for the past 5 years. My uncle Onsy is one of the kindest most amazing spiritual, God loving people I have ever known in my life. His wife Fadia is a remarkable, faith based loving women. They both have

220	Terry Adamski	terryadamski@earthlink.net	It is disgusting to see the complicity of the legal system with the railroading of immigrants back to the persecution they tried to escape. The US can no longer ignore the consequences of their actions in deporting immigrants back to countries that will unjustly persecute them. Onsy Zachary is entitled to remain in this country, while he exercises his right to an appeal his conviction.
221	Terry Adamski	terryadamski@earthlink.net	Allow Onsy and Fadia to remain free in the US, and have their deportation orders stayed while they appeal their conviction
222	Terry Loop	terrydiego@juno.com	We, as Americans, pride our country as being a haven for those who are in danger from their own. We are protectors of those who can not protect themselves. Sometimes even from their own families. We must allow this man to continue to stay here using whatever means necessary to assure his and his wife's safety. This is paramount above all else. Otherwise we can not call ourselves a just people

			I know that Onsy Zachary is an innocent man!! I know the whole story because many of his family members have shared this story with me and my family . They are extremely afraid to come forth and they all live in fear that Onsy's brother will do something terrible to them as well. Onsy is so very gentle and loving and puts God before everything. He is loved by so many.Fadia and Onsy are very much apart of my whole family,It is deeply disturbing to know what would happen to them if they got deported to Egypt.How do I explain this to my children?Fadia is like a gandmother to them.I ask you all to pray for Fadia and Onsy. Please pray that they can stay here in the US.This September he gets out of prison and they will get deported if we don't do something about it now!May God be with all of you that reads this. May God doubly bless those who can help in any way.I love you Fadia and Onsy,Toni H.

228	Valerie Protopapas	vaproto@optonline.net	Our borders seem to be open to all manner of criminals, drug dealers, gang members and terrorists, but we are going to deport a Christian who was unjustly accused and convicted and who constitutes a threat to no one. Whatever happened to 'justice for all'?
229	vaughn guloyan	eliotvaughn@verizon.net	This sounds like a transparent case of an injustice; it must be rectified

230	Vincent T Nagle	v.nagle@fscb.org	I am a personal friend of Onsy's, an American Catholic Priest living in the Middle East, and can attest to the accuracy of these statements, having accompanied Onsy and his wife throughout his trial and imprisonment
